What is a Learning Path?

- A Learning Path is a tailored set of connected training materials (called Learning Objects) designed to help you master specific skills.
- It's organized by skill level: Foundation, Advanced, or Excellence.
- It replaces traditional single training courses with a full journey tailored to your role and growth.
- Each path is aligned with a job role and includes:
  - A detailed description and clear goals
  - A list of required skills
  - A variety of learning content in different formats

💡 Why Learning Paths?

They replace traditional standalone training courses with a comprehensive, role-specific journey designed for your growth.

How to Start a Learning Path?

1. Open the Learning app in Workday.
2. In the Learning Home or Discover section (accessible via the dropdown menu), browse or search for a program that aligns with your interests.
3. Click Start Program – no manager approval required!
4. Begin your learning journey at your own pace: Skip or revisit modules as needed to suit your progress.

The screenshot displays the 'eng' Learning app interface. At the top, there is a search bar and notification icons. The main content area features a card for the 'Learning Path developer Java applications and services - Advanced'. The card includes a description in Italian, a 'Show All' link, and a 'Contact your Learning Administrator' section with a lock icon and a message stating that the user cannot complete the program due to lack of access to mandatory items. To the right of the card, there is a 'Start Program' button and a contact person section for 'CLAUDIA AZZOLINI'. A purple arrow points to the 'Start Program' button.
